On Saturday June 17, 2023, at approximately 1115 hours, I, Detective Ford, encountered William Parker near the intersection of Centre Avenue and Crawford Street in the city's Hill District. While working in a plain clothes capacity, my assignment was to follow and provide immediate protection for Pittsburgh Mayor Ed Gainey. I am assigned to the Pittsburgh Bureau of Police's Intelligence Unit, more specifically the Mayor's Protective Service Detail. Working in this plain clothes capacity it is common that I do not present any Pittsburgh Police insignia on my outer clothing or utilize a body worn camera as the assignment is under cover.

During this time as I was following closely to Mayor Gainey, I was being assisted by Pittsburgh Police Detective Michael Gay. Our assignment on this day was to escort Mayor Gainey as he marched with participants of Pittsburgh's Juneteenth Parade. At approximately 1115 hours I observed Mayor Gainey and William Parker exchange brief head and hand gestures towards each other as Parker attempted to gain Mayor Gainey's attention, with what appeared to be a handshake. Mayor Gainey acknowledged Parker but did not shake his hand. It should be noted that Parker has an extensive history at making very disruptive appearances at public events that Mayor Gainey attends. Detectives are well aware of whom William Parker is based on our prior incidents in which Parker has been escorted away by uniformed officers. Parker also recognizes both Detective Gay and me as police officers, having addressed us as such in the past. As Mayor Gainey walked past Parker, not extending a handshake, Parker immediately became visibly upset and started to scream verbal insults at Mayor Gainey. Parker, amongst a very large crowd and following within arm's reach of Mayor Gainey, shouted out that Mayor Gainey was a clown and addressed him as "Mayor Goofy." At this point Mayor Gainey continued to walk along the 1300 block of Centre Avenue as the parade was beginning. Parker, being visibly upset, continued to scream very loudly, attempting to close his distance to the mayor. Mayor Gainey still did not personally acknowledge Parker as he attempted to march along. Parker screamed that Mayor Gainey was not black and continued to tell him to take off the beads he was wearing around his neck. As Parker continued to scream loudly, spectators that were in very close proximity started to become concerned, verbally expressing their worries, some asking Parker to calm down. Parker continued to scream towards Mayor Gainey that he would show up at his house again. There are prior incidents that Parker has "protested" outside of Mayor Gainey's residence using a megaphone. These incidents were resolved with police advising Parker that he did not have a right to be there while being disorderly.

As Parker continued to be disruptive amongst the very large crowd Mayor Gainey ignored him and marched along. It was then that I advised Parker he needed to give Mayor Gainey more space and that he was being disorderly. Parker ignored me and continued to shout, using obscenities. Mayor Gainey witnessed me advise Parker and told me to let him go. It was at this time that I diverted my attention away from Parker but still attempting to keep my body positioned between Parker and Mayor Gainey. As we attempted to continue walking Parker was now on my left side and I could see him with my peripheral vision. It was at this moment I could hear Detective Gay advising Parker to back up and that he could not continue to elbow and shove people close to him, more specifically, Bethany Hallam, who was walking behind Mayor Gainey. Parker then screamed at Det. Gay stating, "I will elbow you too," shoving up against Det. Gay, causing Det. Gay to brace himself while staying between Parker and Hallam. At that point Det. Gay took control of Parker's left arm to detain him. While noticing this and still trying to keep my attention on Mayor Gainey, I quickly assisted Det. Gay. Given the circumstances of the large crowd, the multiple times that Parker was advised to create space and his lack of adherence to police authority, I made an aggressive move towards Parker. I forcefully shoved Parker back with my left forearm as I took control of him by turning him away from me to grab his left wrist. Det. Gay was still holding Parker's left arm as I got Parker to ground with a leg sweep and forcefully handcuffed him.

Once Parker was detained, we assisted him to his feet, and I requested assistance from nearby plain clothes detectives. Detectives Novak and Ferrilli arrived as we escorted Parker to the sidewalk, away from the parade. As we awaited a patrol unit to transport Parker, Det. Novak utilized her body worn camera as Parker continued to shout, using obscenities. At this point I regained my position with Mayor Gainey at Fifth and Ross avenues along the parade route. Officer Strano (unit 3224) arrived and transported Parker to the Allegheny County Jail without incident.
